BPAA Boules raise £485 for charity

The Bristol Property Agents' Association (BPAA) held their Annual Boules Competition last week at the Orangery, Goldney Hall, Clifton and raised £485 for Macmillan Cancer Support and NSPCC Childline (for Bristol) charities.

The event, which was sponsored by Beach Baker Property Recruitment, saw 30 teams from Bristol compete for a chance to win the title in beautiful surroundings on a lovely summer afternoon.

Teams from Bevan Brittan, Osborne Clarke, Meade King, Alder King and Clarke Willmott made the quarter finals, only to be knocked out during the later stages. A tense final was contested between a combined team from DTZ and EC Harris who ultimately triumphed over Burston Cook and to win the competition.

The runners' up competition was won by CMS Developments, who were presented with the Plate by BPAA president Chris Haworth.

A prize draw was also held, with Heidi Bateman from Metcalfes winning the first prize of a £100 meal for two and Stephen Taylor from Thring Townsend and Jason Lambert from Workmans winning the second and third prizes of a bottle of champagne.

Chris Haworth, president of the BPAA and partner at Alder King said: "The BPAA's Annual Boules Competition is a most enjoyable social occasion with friendly competition in the true spirit of sportsmanship and an excellent networking event for those working in the property industry in Bristol. Events like these are vital to help us support our members, have fun and raise money for a good cause."
