

BPAA Quiz night

'The inaugural BPAA Quiz Night took place at The Mud Dock Cafe on 11th November 2009, where twenty teams battled it out for the title of Most Intelligent Property Professionals in the South West. A closely fought contest saw Bevan Britten in first place, Williams Gunter Hardwick in second, and Ashfield Land in third.

The event was kindly sponsored by Cubex, who had their own round of questions incorporated into the quiz. It proved a very popular event, with a strong social element both before and after the quiz, therefore, with a strong chance of returning to the BPAA social calendar in November 2010 - next time with some silverware to win. Very many thanks and appreciation goes to our sponsors and BPAA's own Edward Vanstone, who expertly organised and ran the event.
